

Name:

Fractions of amounts

AC 3.1

120 people are waiting to catch a train.

$\frac{2}{3}$ of the people are going to London.

How many people are going to London?

people

$\frac{3}{10}$ of the people are travelling in 1st class.

How many people are travelling in 1st class?

people

$\frac{3}{4}$ of the people are returning home.

How many people are returning home?

people

40 people were on a bus.

$\frac{1}{4}$ of the people were listening to music on their MP3 player.

How many people were listening to music?

people

$\frac{1}{2}$ of the people were sitting on their own.

How many people were sitting on their own?

people

