

Pairs!

Cut out the boxes and challenge your classmate to a game of pairs!
There are a number of quotes each of which correspond to a teaching or belief. Can you figure them out once they have been mixed up?

"All this is Brahman." Chandogya Upanishad 3:14.1	Brahman is the ultimate reality; the ultimate truth	"You are not able to see Me with your physical eye; therefore, I give you the divine eye to see My majestic power and glory." Bhagavad Gita 11:8	Brahman is nirguna as all descriptions are incomplete and limiting	"He, in the small form, who is seated at the centre of the body..." Katha Upanishad 5:3	Brahman is within us all; the atman.
"He is the one present everywhere and He is the great one who is above all." Katha Upanishad 5:2	Brahman is the most powerful being and is everywhere.	"I manifest Myself by controlling the material Nature, using My own divine potential energy." Bhagavad Gita 4:6	Brahman is sriguna, with attributes that save humans in their limitedness.	"It is only because of His light that other things are seen and understood" Katha Upanishad 5:16	Through belief in Brahman we truly understand the world around us.
"He is the guest in people's houses; he is in men; he is in the best of the Devas." Katha Upanishad 5:2	God is within our hearts.	"To what is One, sages give many a title." Rig Veda 1.164.46	Brahman is one and Hinduism can therefore be classed as monotheistic.	"I am the source of the immortal spirit, of everlasting dharma and of the absolute bliss." Bhagavad Gita 14:27	God is personal as the spirit (atman) is an extension of the Supreme Being
"Everything in the universe is strung on the Supreme Being, like different jewels strung on the thread of a necklace." Bhagavad Gita 7:7	The monistic belief that everything is made up of one essential essence – the atman.	"If you are unable to focus your mind steadily on Me, then long to attain Me by practice of any other spiritual discipline." Bhagavad Gita 12:9	Worship Brahman through use of symbols and deities.	"One is dear to Me who does not hate any creature, who is friendly and compassionate, free from the notion of 'I' or 'my'." Bhagavad Gita 12:13-14	To be close to Brahman is to realise your connection with all of creation.

Extension: While playing the game discuss with your opponent if the quote could be interpreted in any other way.
