There are a number of quotes, each of which corresponds to a teaching or belief. Can you figure them out once they have been mixed up?

'Ik Onkar; There is only One God' GGS1	This is part of the Mool Mantra and teaches that Sikhism is Monotheistic.	'The entire creation came from God. As it pleases Him, He creates the expanse.' GGS 294	Waheguru is creator of the universe.	'He Himself is the love, and He Himself is the embrace; the Gurmukh contemplates Him forever.' GGS 921	God is loving and caring and should be at the forefront of all our thoughts.
'Recognize the Lord's Light within all, and do not consider social class or status; there are no classes or castes in the world hereafter.' GGS 349	All humans are equal.	'The Gurmukhs do not die; they are not consumed by death. The Gurmukhs are absorbed in the True Lord.'	The reward of being God-centred is great where they will break the cycle of death and rebirth and return to God.	'Singing His Glorious Praises, I enter the Mansion of the Lord's Presence.' GGS 1054	Through jap and aardas, along with being God-centred, one can achieve mukti.
'How is the Society of the Saints to be known? There, the Name of the One Lord is chanted.' GGS 72	Those who recite the names of God collectively as one community are saintly.	'If you fear the cycle of birth and death, then seek the Sanctuary of the Holy.' GGS 266	You should join the congregation at worship to aid the achieving of mukti.	'By the karma of past actions, the robe of this physical body is obtained.' GGS 2	The body you have now is a result of your previous life's action.
'By His Grace, the Gate of Liberation is found.' GGS 2	Only by God's will can one achieve mukti. One must therefore appease God through faith and action.	'They are liberated, they are liberated – those who meditate on the Lord. For them, the noose of death is cut away.' GGS 11	Liberation awaits those who are God-centred.	'It was the Lord's desire that the Guru and the disciple would become one.' Bhai Gurdas Var 3.11	Joining the community of Sikhs is what God wants for His creation so that all can access Him.
