

Mystery Activity - Will Bob's Funeral be a Humanist Ceremony?

Sadly, Bob has died and left no instructions for his friends and family about what sort of funeral he would have liked. Bob had a devoted wife, Betty and a daughter, Belinda, with whom he had a great relationship too. His best friend Asif used to teach with Bob at the same school before they both retired.

Bob's last Facebook status two days before he died was:

"It's almost time to go. Love to all my family and friends. Thanks for putting up with such a grumpy old man for so long. Don't believe there's a next life, but if I'm wrong, see you there!"

As a group, try to decide whether or not Bob's loved ones arrange a Humanist funeral for him. Of course, there's no correct answer to this. What's important is that you use your knowledge of funerals, religious and non-religious beliefs and your communication skills to come to an agreement about the type of service you think they would choose for Bob.

Mystery Activity - Will Bob's Funeral be a Humanist Ceremony?

These cards suggest that Bob will have a Humanist (or completely non-religious funeral)	These cards suggest that Bob will not have a Humanist (or a religious funeral)	We were unsure about these cards:
<h1>Yes!</h1>	<h1>No!</h1>	You are only allowed to place a maximum of 2 cards in this column! <h1>?</h1>

Your Group's Conclusion

We decided _____ because _____

EXTENSION - On the back, write some notes about how you came to your conclusion.