

Film trailers and posters

Trailer structure

Trailers have their own structure

OPENING

Usually establishes setting and introduces characters and situation

BUILD-UP

The situation is developed and relationships established

PROBLEM

A series of complications follows and problems to overcome

EVENTS-ENDING

A series of events builds anticipation and provides further complications that will be resolved on viewing the film...