

One of the important roles of education is to sort people into jobs and to give them the qualifications they need. Functionalists and Marxists however disagree about how this happens.

Have a look at the diagram below:

1. What is happening in the diagram?
2. Which sociological theory of education does this diagram represent?
3. Explain your reasons using sociological terms.
4. Give three weaknesses of this theory.

All students

Working class jobs

Middle class jobs

Upper class jobs

One of the important roles of education is to sort people into jobs and to give them the qualifications they need. Functionalists and Marxists however disagree about how this happens.

Have a look at the diagram below:

1. What is happening in the diagram?
2. Which sociological theory of education does this diagram represent?
3. Explain your reasons using sociological terms.
4. Give three weaknesses of this theory.

