

Levers and Linkages

A pair of scissors is the typical example of a First Class lever (Double lever). The Fulcrum is the pivot in the middle and the Force is applied with your hand at the end.

Reverse Motion linkage systems

Reverse motion linkages can be used to change the direction of motion. This is useful for changing a push into a pull, or visa-versa.

