

“There is no such thing as life after death”

Skills Builder: Analysis and Evaluation

1. ‘There is no life after death because there’s no proof. It’s just wishful thinking.’

2. Furthermore...

(write an extra point that supports the idea that there is no life after death)

3. However, many Christians would challenge those ideas as weak arguments and say...

(write an opposite/counter argument to numbers 1 and 2 that offers a reason why many believe there is life after death)

4. On the other hand though, it is reasonable to argue that...

(write a point of view that challenges the arguments in number 3)

5. Alternatively, a stronger argument might be...

(write an opposite/counter argument to number 4)

6. By way of contrast though, it is valid to say that...

(write an opposite/counter argument to the points made in number 5)

7. Like many atheists, I agree entirely with the statement because...

(reach a judgement and offer reasons why you or others don’t believe there is life after death)
